the NOW now.

2004

holy cow!

I'm not sure if it's socially acceptable to have 'improvised music' and 'extravaganza' in the same sentence, but it seems we are left with little alternative. welcome to the NOW now, 2004 - three days, six nights and several lifetimes worth of music, communication and exploration.

with love and respect we thank the musicians involved for their enthusiasm, encouragement and creative spirit.

woo hoo,
clare and clayton.

THANK YOU
